What Will You Do With the Time God Gave You?

Psalm 90:12 | Ephesians 5:15–17 | Judges 7:1–22

BIG IDEA

God gives you identity, calling, and time. You become Authentically You when you recognize the moment, rely on His presence, and rise in obedience.

TAKE IT HOME

Recognize the God-given moment, rely on His presence when visible securities are reduced, and take one specific step of obedience while the opportunity is open.

KEY STATEMENTS

1. Time is not something we _____; it is something God _____.
2. God did not only form you; He gave you _____ in which your obedience could become _____.
3. There is a season for _____, and there is a moment when preparation must become _____.
4. The time to trust God is not “_____.”

1. RECOGNIZE THE MOMENT

Point Thrust

God-given time is a sacred trust, and wisdom discerns what faithfulness requires right now.

PERSONAL NOTES _____

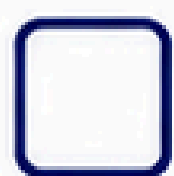

LIFE APPLICATION

Take It Home This Week

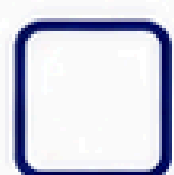

1. Recognize the Moment

Identify one opportunity, conversation, or calling God is placing before you right now.

2. Rely on His Presence

Name the visible security you have been leaning on and surrender it to God.

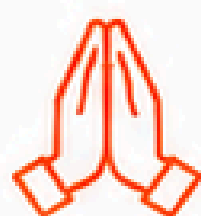

3. Rise in Obedience

Choose one specific next step and give it a when, a where, and a what.

Reflection Questions

- What God-given moment am I tempted to postpone?
- What visible support or condition have I been leaning on more than God?
- What is my next obedient step, and when will I take it?

Prayer Prompt

Lord, teach me to number my days, recognize the moment, rely on Your presence, and rise in obedience. Give me grace to trust You with the next step. In Jesus' name, Amen.
